CITY ORDINANCES

Parking Ordinance

Street parking is only allowed when your driveway is full and for no more than 24 hours.

- All 4 wheels on the pavement
- No straddling drainage areas
- No parking on any yard area (front, back, or side)
- No blocking driveways
- No heavy-duty vehicles with 2+ rear axles
- Planning a gathering? Direct guests to park appropriately. Rental owners: inform occupants.

Other Ordinances

- Lawn growth must not exceed 10 inches
- Sidewalks, driveways & culverts kept clear of debris
- Inoperable vehicles stored in a garage, carport, or off premises
- Residences limited to single-family use and home occupations
- No business/product signs on site

Code Enforcement

Most violations involve parking, grass, debris, burning, loose dogs, and solicitors. A Code Enforcement Officer makes regular drive-throughs to issue warnings and citations.

Solicitors: Simply don't open your door to unknown visitors. They will leave.

Loose Dogs: If threatened, call 911. If not, call 311. Metro Animal Control can impose payable fines. Document with date, time, address, dog description, and photos.

Kentucky Outdoor Burning Laws

- All fires are illegal on Air Quality Alert Days or when winds exceed 15 mph
- Burn only clean, dry firewood — no trash or yard waste
- Fire pit max size: 3 ft × 3 ft × 3 ft (brick, concrete, stone, or metal)
- Natural gas, propane, or wood fire pits are allowed

Report violations: Call (502) 574-6000 or use the Metro311 app. Weekends: call 911.
